

OILFIELD STIMULATION COURSE

Beginner and New experienced - Level 1

Target population

Engineers, Supervisors

From 4 to 10 participants :

3 days

2 or 3 participants : 2 days

The training can be customized

as per the Training Dpt or the Line Manager decision.

.A phone call can be set up before the starting of the training.

The training can be performed in the client facilities or in a room in a business center.

PDF presentations will be displayed.

.A lot of theory and practical situations will be discussed during the sessions.

The good ambiance and the interaction between the trainees and the consultant is very important to gain from this experience.

INDIVIDUAL

TRAINING Total of 10 hours

Number of sessions and frequency, defined with the trainee

OBJECTIVES

During the training, you will have acquired skills which will enable you to :

- Understand the purpose of the different Lab test for stimulating a well.
- Prepare an Acid program design in Carbonate/Sandstone Formation.
- Understand the operations for each job.
- Learn different tools and equipment of the operation.

Possible Program Development

Introduction to Acidizing

Understand the basics of using the Acid

Formation properties and Mineralogy

Acid Design Matrix

How to make an Acid program for Carbonates and Sandstone Formations

Pressure

Acid dilution

Practice problems

Different type of damage

Acidizing Operation

Bulheading and Unit equipment

Coiled Tubing

Using Tools

The Expert

More than 20 years in Services Companies like BJ Services/ Baker, Halliburton and Weatherford as Technical and Region Manager. One year with an Operator Company PDO in Muscat, Oman.

Worked in Onshore and Offshore In North Africa, West Africa, Azerbaijan and the Middle East. Intense training in UK, France and USA in Technical side and Management/ Sales. Trained many Engineers from the operators company mainly and also trained operators / helpers in Africa for running the Cutting, blending Cement with additives.

Based in Dubai. Trilingual : English – French – Arabic.