

INSTITUT EUROPEEN
DES HAUTES PERFORMANCES

OUR EXPERTISE

HUMAN capital is the wealth of companies :

- it is based on a subtle blend of interpersonal skills, development of potential and quality of being and
- this translates in motivation and efficiency.

This is the reason why, for more than 30 years, we focus our expertise on behavioral skills (SOFT SKILLS)

Know yourself better, accept yourself

Develop self-confidence

Recognize ones own emotions and those of others to manage them appropriately

Be flexible and open to change

Communicate effectively, know how to listen, convince, better understand others

Manage ones time, stress

Develop ones managerial qualities: delegate, motivate, act as a manager Coach

Be creative, innovative, proactive....

For example, in the next section "Training TOPICS" we offer some group trainings over 2 days.

What we particularly appreciate, is to

- establish a trust relationship with the General Director, HR / Training Managers or a Business Unit Director and
- build CUSTOMIZED original programs, which meet their needs and
- support them on the long term.

Please refer to CUSTOMIZED Trainings.
